MEISTER

【Traditional Craft Artisans Demonstration】

The Kyoto Museum of Traditional Crafts “Fureaikan” chooses a representative traditional craft each month, and its delicate and varied art is demonstrated by master craftsmen. Learn what kinds of processes go into the completion of a piece, and how much effort goes into its making. Traditional crafts transcend time and live today- come and view their production methods.

Times: Every day. National holiday.
Monday closed.
10:00 AM - 4:30 PM

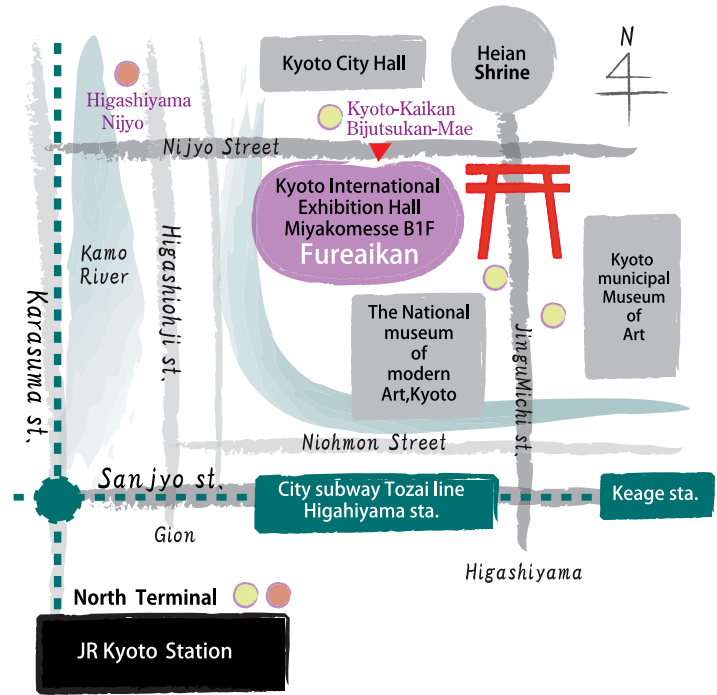

MAI

【The World of the Maiko】

Ornamental floral hairpins, Nishijin textiles, Kyo Yuzen dyed fabrics, Kyo fans... the adornments worn by the elegant Maiko are the result of the long cultivation of traditional craftsmen and each item is a shining example of the artisan’s craft. The “Fureaikan” has made it possible to see the Maiko of the five entertainment areas of Kyoto. The adornments that the Maiko wear are all traditional crafts- come and see the world of the Maiko, the people that wear the beauty of Japan.

Times: Every Sunday 2:00 PM - 3:30 PM
Start at 2:00pm. 2:30pm. 3:00pm 15min
